

Greetings and NǐHǎo (你好) from Confucius Institute University of Mumbai.

We cordially invite Chinese language teachers from your institute for a two (2) day Teacher Training Workshop, being held at University of Mumbai, under the joint aegis of the Headquarters of Confucius Institute (HANBAN), China, the Consulate General of China, Mumbai and the Confucius Institute, University of Mumbai.

This program is held under the 'Experts Training Abroad Program for Overseas Chinese Language Teachers' and is conducted by visiting trainers from HANBAN, China. The tentative dates for the Workshop are proposed on April 15 & 16, 2017 at Kalina Campus, University of Mumbai.

The training workshop will promote cooperation and exchange between Confucius Institute and other Indian private institutes. In the workshop experts from HANBAN, China will impart specialized training to our India based Chinese language teachers. The focus shall be on:

- Basics of Chinese Language,
- Teaching,
- Chinese teaching methodology,
- Instructional design,
- Classroom management,
- Chinese culture,
- Cross-culture communication.

We believe that this and other programs yet to be held, will definitely improve the teaching skills and quality of Chinese language teachers, imparting Chinese language skills in Mumbai and around the region. Our primary aim is to empower & knit the Chinese language teaching community into a united and strong family.

We hope that you will be interested in the program. The Chinese teacher desirous of attending this training should send an email with the following details at confucius-institute@mu.ac.in.

- Name
- Gender
- Age
- Mobile Number
- Email
- Qualification / Chinese proficiency level
- Levels Taught (undergraduate or school)
- Institution / School
- Address of Institute / School

Please revert for any clarifications or queries. We shall keep you updated on any new information regarding the workshop.