

GERMAN INTELLECTUAL TRADITIONS

FROM KANT
TO HABERMAS

AUGUST 2015 - MARCH 2017

LECTURE 13

HANS-GEORG GADAMER

(11 February 1900 - 13 March 2002)

Saturday, 9th December
2:00 - 5:30 pm, Library, MMB

"Just as in the experience of art we are concerned with truths that go essentially beyond the range of methodical knowledge, so the same thing is true of the whole of the human sciences: in them our historical tradition in all its forms is certainly made the object of investigation, but at the same time truth comes to speech in it"

Hans-Georg Gadamer, Truth and Method

SESSION I

2:00 - 3:30 PM

"Philosophical Hermeneutics"
by Dr. Paneerselvam, Former Head, Department of Philosophy, University of Madras

3:30 - 4:00 PM, Refreshments

SESSION II

4:00 - 5:30 PM

"Gadamer on Truth: Art, History,
Hermeneutics" by Dr. Apaar Kumar,
Manipal Centre for Philosophy and Humanities

LECTURE 14

Saturday, 12th December, 6.30 pm

WHAT IS PHILOSOPHY?

by Prof. Akeel Bilgrami
Sidney Morgenbesser Professor of Philosophy
Professor, Committee on Global Thought,
Columbia University

All sessions followed by audience interaction.

PARTICIPATING COLLEGES:

HVPS's Ramaniranjan Jhunjhunwala College
Ramnarain Ruia College
SIES College of Arts, Science, and Commerce
Sophia College for Women
St. Xavier's College - Autonomous, Mumbai
VPM's K. G. Joshi College of Arts &
N. G. Bedekar College of Commerce
Wilson College
S. K. Somaiya College Of Arts Science & Commerce

For registration, email: deptofphil@hotmail.com
Limited seats.

Organised by the Goethe-Institut / Max Mueller Bhavan Mumbai and the Department of German, University of Mumbai