Sub: Collaborative Programme on 'Research Methods in Labour Studies'.
30th December, 2019 to 03rd January, 2020.

Dear Dr. Suhas Pednekar, Sir,

The Institute in collaboration with V.V.Giri National Labour Institute, Noida is organizing the programme on 'Research Methods in Labour Studies'. This is, with a view to encouraging research scholars to take up research broadly in the field of Labour Studies and Social Sciences. The research scholars registered for Ph.D. or those planning to take up research in the area of Labour Studies and Social Sciences may apply for the programme for which there is no programme fees. It may please be noted that the programme will be between 30th December, 2019 to 03rd January, 2020 for the full day. The participants will be exposed very rigorously to various aspects of research methodology and therefore, it is suggested that those who have qualified NET/SET/M. Phil/ PET Exam in Labour Studies or Social Sciences will be benefitted from the proposed workshop. The lunch and tea will be provided to the participants. The reputed faculty will be drawn from V.V.Giri National Labour Institute, Noida and other Universities in Maharashtra.

You are requested to give wide publicity & ensure registration form should reach the institute latest on or before by 20th December, 2019, in the prescribed format attached herewith. You may submit your registration form by post or through email mils@mtnl.net.in or drpmkadukar@gmail.com. The seats are limited so 'first come first preference' this principle will be followed. For more details you may contact with the programme co-ordinator Dr. P. M. Kadukar on 022- 24125332 or Mobile- 09371604694.

Thanking you.

Yours sincerely,

(V. S. Deshpande)
