The Department of Philosophy, University of Mumbai is soon going to hold the online entrance exam for M.A (by papers) after due scrutiny of applications received via google form (in response to the notice displayed on the website). An email regarding date and time of the online change of faculty/entrance exam will be sent to approved applications (of those who are eligible as per University norms and who have submitted all details and documents as per the google form).

The Department Office will respond to queries received (in Office and through email) after the Diwali vacation.

Please note that this notice only pertains to applicants interested in M.A. by papers.
