

Australian Consulate-General

Chennai, India

Department of English, University of Madras
Centre for Australian Studies

&

Australian Consulate General, Chennai

In collaboration with

University of Delhi

University of Mumbai

Invite you to meet

Date & Time

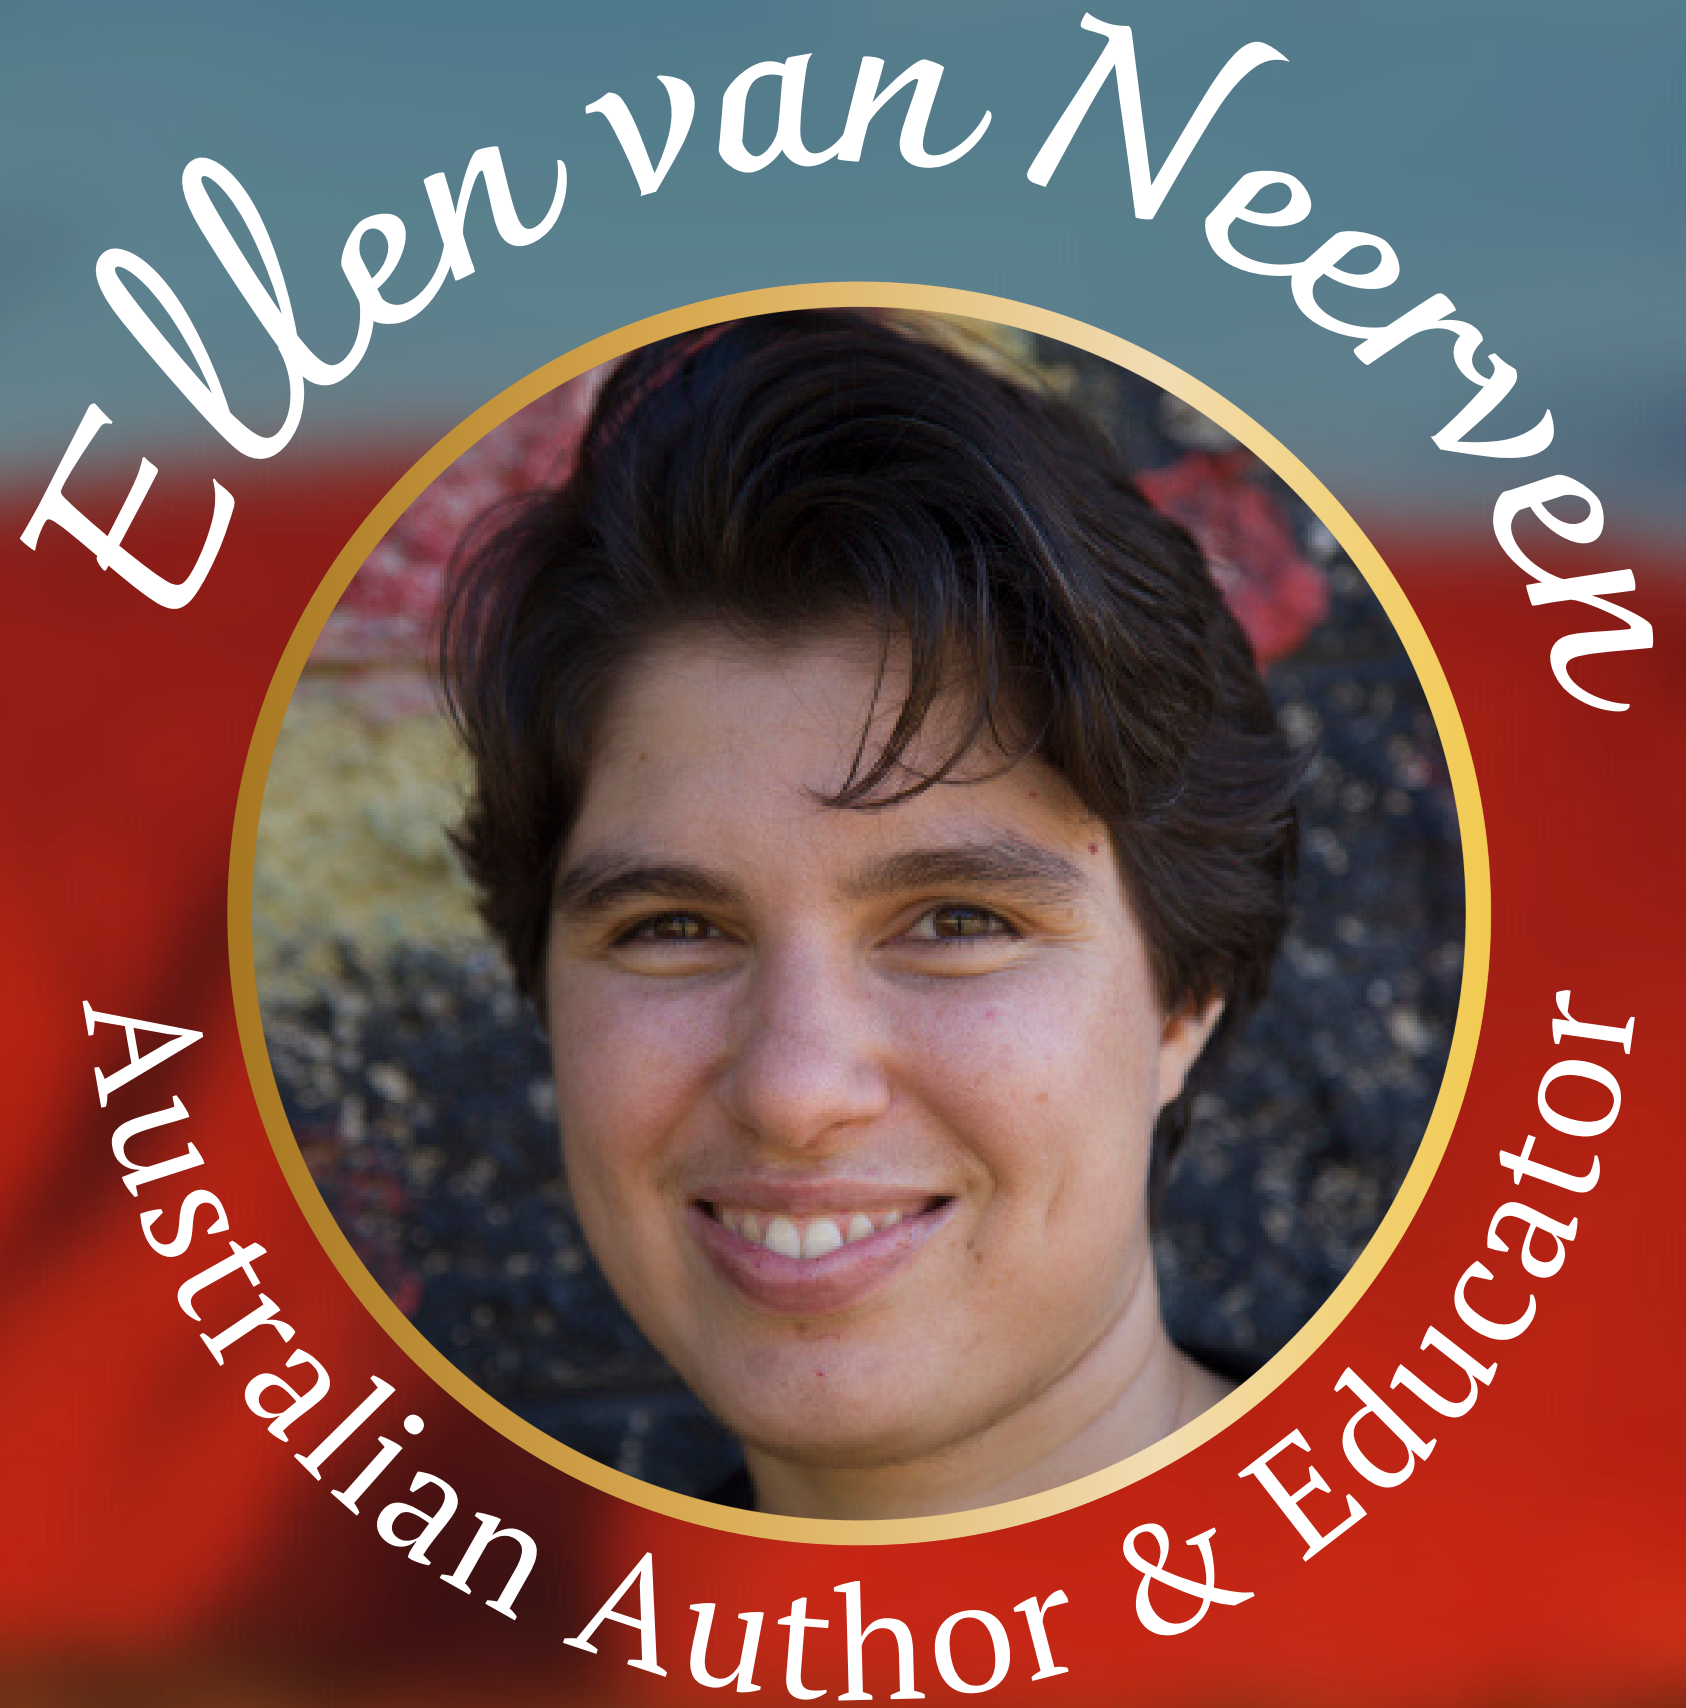

18th May, 2021

12:00 pm IST

Platform - Cisco WEBEX

Event code: 184 873 7365

Password: Meeting1

Link - https://dfat.webex.com/dfat/onstage/g.php?

MTID=e077f59bb2ef544a05ec1772f0d7c021d

Ellen van Neerven is an award-winning author, editor and educator of Mununjali and Dutch heritage. Their first book Heat and Light, a novel-in-stories, was the recipient of multiple awards and Throat, their latest poetry collection, was the recipient of the inaugural Quentin Bryce Award. They are an editor and are also a co-host and creative producer of two podcasts Extraordinary Voices for Extraordinary Times and Between the Leaves.

Event Chair : Dr Raj Kumar, Professor and Head,

Department of English, University of Delhi

Dr. S. Armstrong, Professor & Head,
Department of English, University of Madras

Mr. Andrew Collister, Vice Consul
Australian Consulate General, Chennai

Dr. Rajesh Karankal, Head,
Department of English, University of Mumbai

Dr. Raj Kumar, Professor & Head,
Department of English, University of Delhi