UNIVERSITY OF MUMBAI:

One of the oldest and premier universities of India, the University of Mumbai [known earlier as University of Bombay], was established in 1857 after the "Wood's Education Dispatch". It is one amongst the first three Universities established in India. In the last 164 years of its functioning, the University has carved out a niche for itself as the intellectual and moral storehouse of society. The university has 54 teaching departments, 13 specialized centers, 781 affiliated colleges, 2 main campuses, 2 sub campuses, 2 model colleges. The jurisdiction of the University is spread over a geographical area of more than 600 km. from Mumbai to Goa including Palghar, Sindhudurg, Ratnagiri, Raigad districts.

Teaching-Learning, Research, Consultancy, and Innovation are its strengths and the University strives to nourish them to keep them contemporary and effective. The University is committed to creating and maintaining world class facilities and creating knowledge in the frontier areas of human understanding: keeping in mind societal needs.

CENTER FOR HINDU PHILOSOPHICAL STUDIES (CHPS):

The Centre For Hindu Philosophical Studies (CHPS) is an academic forum at University of Mumbai fostering the study of Hindu Philosophy since the ancient times. The center will actively initiate and coordinate research questions in critical ways and disseminates research results through its academic events and publications. As a hub of work in humanities and social sciences, CHPS will collaborate with many MU departments and academic units. It will cross the boundaries of disciplines, conventional, and geo-political categorizations, and cover periods from ancient to modern times. With institutional contacts throughout the region and worldwide, the CHPS will be an important site for academic research and communication.

THEME OF THE CONFERENCE:

Hindu Philosophy is an age-old tradition known as Sanatana Dharma, extraordinarily rich in its heritage and scriptural wisdom. It believes in Vasudaiva Kutumbakam, i.e., the entire world is one family, and it spreads the message of brotherhood all over the world. It also believes in living in harmony with nature and thus propagates the worship of rivers, mountains, forests, animals instead of exploiting them for personal benefits. The knowledge which comes from the ancient ages such as Four Vedas, two Itihasas, thirty two Upanishads and six Darsanas gave us complete understanding about medicines (Ayurveda), statecraft (Arthashastra), architecture, mathematics (invention of zero), cosmology, engineering, martial arts etc. It is important, therefore, to understand and conceptualize the significance of Hindu Philosophy in today's world in relation to Scriptures, History, Politics, Trade & Commerce, Economics, Sociology, Spirituality, Peace, and Ecology.

PLENARY SESSIONS:

The Theme of the Conference will be discussed in the following Plenary Sessions:

Panel 1 - Hindu Philosophy and World Peace, Sociology and Politics: Issues and Challenges.

Panel 2 - Hindu Philosophy and World Trade, Commerce and Economics.

Panel 3 - Hindu Philosophy and Cosmology, Medicine, Vedic Mathematics and Architecture.
