Arising out of discussion it was decided regarding the matter of 'compulsory projects' for T.Y.B.Sc. (physics) Semester V and Semester VI students that the said provision for compulsory projects, included in the syllabus of these semesters was to be deleted and that the projects would be optional and be included in any of the Elective or Applied Component subjects for these semesters. It was further decided that any learner opting for such projects would be eligible to be awarded two additional credits on successful completion and evaluation of the respective projects. The said projects would be in the form of suitable assignments of small research problems.
