The seven days special camp of National Service Scheme is always the heart of NSS programme. We were very warmly hosted by Shivbhakta Ashram Shala – A resident school for the tribal students. The trustees and principal of schools were very generous in making our stay comfortable.

Day 1: We reached the camp site by 10:30 am on the first day and were very warmly greeted by Shri Ramesh Buture- trustee of the school and Smt. Sayali Buture-Principal of the school. They briefed us about the school and its functioning. Volunteers were touched when they realised the hardships that a tribal student goes through to get educated. After having received the briefings about camp site students settled for the first session of the camp. Programme Officer- Prof Amit Yadav and Prof. Anuradha Ganesh inducted the students about the nature of the camp and the role of NSS volunteers in the camp. The volunteers were divided and named into nine groups. The volunteers introduced the other members from their group to everyone as a part of team building exercise. NSS song, Lakshya Geet and other Kranti Geet were recited. Mr. Avinash Kadam from Vidrohi Sanskrutik Chalval conducted the session on “Street Play”. Bhoir and the village head Ms. Deepa Pardhi paid visit to camp to chalk out the 6 days of labour work. With lot of experiments the food on the first day was collectively cooked by many novice students. With lot of democracy in the cooking exercise the food tasted yummy to those hungry souls. After writing the diary for the day, we called off.

Day 2: The day began at 5:30 am and after getting refreshed students assembled in the ground to begin the day with NSS Songs, Lakshya Geet and National Anthem. After morning exercises, Yoga session was conducted by a Mr. Pratmesh Mistry- a volunteer who is a trained Yoga teacher. By 7 am, the students gathered for breakfast and by 7:30 the journey towards Numberwadi hamlet in Kuderan Village began for the day's shramdaan of check dam building. This being the first day of labour work, volunteers got a bit tired initially, but later the spirit could overshadow the tiredness. After the bath and lunch the afternoon session was conducted by Shri Laxman Gole a renowned Gandhian. He made volunteers realise the value of truthfulness in life. His session on Gandhian Thoughts and Life was highly appreciated by students. In the evening Nisarg- A Badlapur based NGO of very high repute conducted amazing sessions on biodiversity and astronomy. Students were taken to field to experience the beauty and mystery of nature first hand. Post dinner evaluation of day's work and diary writing was done and we called it the day.

Day 3: After the morning routine, we again departed for the field work leaving one group for cleaning and kitchen work and the other for surveying village. In the afternoon session students were given time to prepare street play with several themes like superstitions, dowry, swachha abhiyan, child labour, racism, child sexual abuse, communal harmony, education and AIDS awareness. Another very interesting yoga session was conducted in the evening followed by yet another session by Nisarg Trust. Nisarg Trust was invited again on the fond insistence of volunteers. Villagers were invited to attend the evening session on “Organic and Sustainable Farming” which was conducted by Ms. Priya Salvi who herself practices this kind of farming and lifestyle for years now. Her example was very inspiring for everyone. Even the villagers were greatly benefitted of the interaction, as the discussion was very much application based. After the dinner we sat back to record our memories in the diary and later called it a day.

5th Day: Morning saw the usual Prayers, Exercise and Yoga followed by dam building. We could see the fruits of labour when we could finally complete the dam and see the water level rising for ourselves. It was very jubilant ambience. As the Bus got delayed we got extra time to celebrate the occasion. Shri Rajendra Koli from Maharashtra Andha Shraddha Nirmulan Samiti conducted the session in the afternoon and left the volunteers spell bound. We filled in the sacks for another dam to be built few yards away from ours but we could not complete this one. Ms. Deepa Bhoir – the Gram Sevak assured us of getting it completed afterwards. Our local guide during the dam building treated us by taking us to an extremely beautiful waterfall in the neighbouring forest. It was a treacherous journey but the experience was breathtaking. We enjoyed to our heart’s content. Meanwhile the survey team did a fabulous job of gathering the socio-economic data of the villagers. It was a life changing experience for the volunteers to get to know the hardships that tribals face every day in their lives. In the afternoon session all these experience was shared by the volunteers. In the evening street plays were performed in the village and the donation that were brought from college was distributed amongst the kids and the elders alike. The “Joy of Giving” was very evident. This being the last night of the camp, volunteers had gala time. We shared our experiences. The hidden talents of each one of them were aroused and exposed. We sang, danced and had exhilarating laughter. The bonds had become stronger and the knowledge of this being last night was saddening. We went to our rooms after diary writing.

Day 7: After our daily morning routine, which now also included laughing exercises, we cleaned the village and the premise. We experienced the arduous job of fetching water ourselves. We helped the villagers for that one day to fill their water tanks. Howsoever small help it was, it certainly sensitised everybody of the need to take utmost care of water resources. In the afternoon we donated the notebooks that we had made out of the used exam answer sheets to the school. Trustee Shri Ramesh D. Butere and Principal Smt. Sayali R. Buture interacted with students once again at the end of the session. They took the feedback of the students regarding the camp.
