3.36 Resolution	UGC public Notice No. F.9-1/2020 (PS/Misc.) dated 06th March, 2023 regarding Eligibility criteria for promotion under CAS in terms of guiding Ph.D. Scholars. University Grants Commission has come up with various public notices, regulations and other documents related to various decisions taken at UGC. Two important decisions UGC has published are. 1. The student for Ph.D will not be registered for a research guide who is superannuating in next three years – UGC Notice dated 7th November, 2022 2. The Eligible Permanent faculty members can guide Ph.D. scholars during the probation period, also. (UGC public Notice No. – F-9-1/2020 (PS/Mics) dates 6th March, 2023) After deliberations and discussion it was decided to write to the UGC in both these above matters for reconsideration stating following :- Point No. 1 The student for Ph.D will not be registered for a research guide who is superannuating in next three years – UGC Notice dated 7th November, 2022 “The teacher in university of research centre is not a regular teacher unless he/she completes the probation. The research guide should have completed the probation period for guiding the students. The probation is now just one year so the teacher may be involved in research promotion activity and then on completion of first probation be allowed to register the the students for Ph.D.”

	Point No. 2 The Eligible Permanent faculty members can guide Ph.D. scholars during the probation period, also. (UGC public Notice No. – F-9-1/2020 (PS/Mics) dates 6th March, 2023) “There are limited guides in the various faculties in University. The time period of three years is too long period for not registering. As it was previous rule that last 6 months before the superannuation of the research guide, no new student can be registered for Ph.D. be continued . The students and guide can get additional time for completion of the study for next few terms. The guide with fit physical and mental condition may be allowed to continue as guide next five years after the retirement.” The matter is placed before Academic Council for consideration & approval.
