Title of Paper : History of Pre Islamic Arabia and Prophet Mohammed-II

Sr. No.	Heading	Particulars
1	Description of the course: Including but Not limited to:	This course provides an in-depth exploration of the social, political, cultural, and religious landscape of the Arabian Peninsula prior to the advent of Islam, followed by a detailed study of the life and mission of Prophet Muhammad (peace be upon him). Students will gain a comprehensive understanding of the historical context in which Islam emerged, examining the tribal dynamics, economic structures, belief systems, and cultural practices of pre-Islamic Arabia, often referred to as the Jahiliyyah (Age of Ignorance). The course then transitions into an analytical biography of Prophet Muhammad (PBUH), tracing key events from his birth and early life in Mecca, the first revelations of the Quran, the challenges faced by early Muslims, the Hijrah (migration) to Medina, the establishment of the first Islamic state, major battles and treaties, and his eventual passing. Emphasis is placed on the Prophet's character, leadership, and the transformative impact of his message on Arabian society and beyond.
