Objectives of The Course :

Knowing the artist's tools and materials and finding their possibilities and limitations through series of free and elaborate exercises. Understanding of the basic forms and the fundamentals of drawing and design, Training in observation and expression. This covers the training both theoretical and practical. The student is made aware of the basic shapes and forms together with his understanding of space, in which these are relatively placed. In the practical application, these fundamentals are applied in drawing and painting where student learns to see nature in a subjective way and understands the basic relationship between seeing and feeling. Thus he is made familiar with visual perceptions : Form and Matter, relation between the objects of art and nature, origin of plastic arts as a way of human sensibilities and human urge for expression. He is also taught through series of exercises, how and artist sees and expresses, how most of the objects have more than one meaning. Ultimately, the end of such a course is to build up and awareness in student about man's creative expressions and through the practical assignments offering them an opportunity to realise their own potentiality and limitations.

UNIVERSITY OF MUMBAI

Ordinance, Regulations and Scheme of Syllabus for the Bachelor of Fine Arts (Applied Art) Degree (Revised Course)

(with effect from academic year 2004-2005)

OBJECTIVES OF THE COURSE

After H.S.C. Examination, this four year course in Applied Art is planned to provide a student with the means to become a communication designer in expanding areas of communication design, where opportunities exist for designers in various field of communication i.e. Advertising, Social Communication, Publication, Education, etc. Also as per the norms laid down by All India Council for Technical Education (AICTE), 12+4 pattern is requested to be accepted.

Bachelor of Fine Arts (Applied Art) is a vocational course and to keep pace with the changing economic and social environment, both internationally and within India; a need was felt to revamp and revise the Syllabus. The aim and objective of the course is to teach students to argue and express their views boldly and frankly a) on the work executed by them b) on the current practice as well as trends in communication design and c) interacting with other faculties, which will help them to achieve skills to defend their work, build up the confidence, acquire the skills of salesmanship and finally groom them into successful communication design professionals.

The theory subjects of the course (History of Visual Communication and Advertising Art and Ideas) offer a theoretical knowledge base to a student and enable him to apply it analytically and creatively toward a practical solution for any communication design problem.

The knowledge imparted under the 'Practical Subjects', is aimed to improve the rendering skills and aesthetic sensibilities of a student.

Finally the changes made in the syllabus should be perceived as 'academically' firm and 'qualitatively' strong steps taken in the direction of creating a talented and technologically sound pool of students of future.

Note: Students are permitted, at their option, to answer Theory paper in English, Marathi or Hindi.

Group II: Practical

3. DRILL LESSONS.

Studio Practicals per Academic Year: 60 Hours.

Paper: Not for Examination.

Assignments per Academic Year: 06 Term Work: No Marks to be included.

This is an essential module for each admitted student. This module contains rendering and handling possibilities of various drawing tools and materials (Mediums) such as pencil, Rotring - Aerograph pen, instrument box, poster colours, water colours, on various surfaces.

4. DRAWING.

Studio Practicals per Academic Year: 120 Hours.

Paper: 80 Marks.

Duration: 5 Hours.

Assignments per Academic Year: 16

Term Work: 20 Marks.

Term Work shall consist of at least 16 assignments covering the given syllabus, duly performed, completed and graded, carrying a weightage of 20 marks.

Student must gain at least 40% of the total marks allotted for the Term Work of the academic year, in order to make him/her eligible to appear for the examination.

- ⇒ Human Figure - Structural drawing from cast and Living - Full Figure Drawing - in line and in masses - Study of Anatomy - Medium: Pencil and Colour (Water Colour, Poster Colour)
- ⇒ Still Life - Combination of Natural and Manmade elements - Study of Drapery - Study of proportion - Study of light, shade, texture, colour and composition.
- ⇒ Sketching from Surrounding - Human Figures - Architecture - Nature.
- ⇒ Mediums: Pencil, Pen and Ink, Crayon, Charcoal, Pastels, Colours etc.
- ⇒ Outdoor Study.

5. NATURE & OBJECT DRAWING.

Studio Practicals per Academic Year: 80 Hours.

Paper: 80 Marks.

Duration: 5 Hours.

Assignments per Academic Year: 06

Term Work: 20 Marks.

Term Work shall consist of at least 06 assignments covering the given syllabus, duly performed, completed and graded, carrying a weightage of 20 marks.

Student must gain at least 40% of the total marks allotted for the Term Work of the academic year, in order to make him/her eligible to appear for the examination.

- ⇒ Drawing from Nature, Natural Specimens - Study of Shape, Form, Texture, Colours etc. Study of Light and Shade.
- ⇒ Manmade objects - Study of Shape, Form, Texture, Colours etc. Study of the surface with understanding of lettering and images on it. Study of Light and Shade, understanding depth and volume.
- ⇒ Some of the assignments may be a combination of Natural Specimens and Manmade Objects.

6. COLOUR: THEORY & PRACTICAL

Studio Practicals per Academic Year: 24 Hours.

Paper: (Combined with 2D Design).

Duration: 5 Hours.

Assignments per Academic Year: 02

Term Work: Term Work of 2D Design and Colour together, shall consist of at least 02+05 assignments covering the given syllabus, duly performed, completed and graded, carrying a weightage of 20 marks.

Student must gain at least 40% of the total marks allotted for the Term Work of the academic year, in order to make him/her eligible to appear for the examination.

- ⇒ Perception of Colour. Pigment and Light theory. Colour Wheel. Understanding of primary - secondary and complementary harmonies and contrasts. Grey scales. Optical illusions.
- ⇒ Symbolic aspect of Colour.
- ⇒ Colour psychology.
- ⇒ Colour Practical: Assignments based on colour wheel - Primary - Secondary - Tertiary - Quaternary

7. 2 D DESIGN.

Studio Practicals per Academic Year: 72 Hours.

Paper: 80 Marks. (Combined with Colour theory). Duration: 5 Hours.

Assignments per Academic Year: 05

Term Work: 20 Marks.

Term Work: Term Work of 2D Design and Colour together, shall consist of at least 02+05 assignments covering the given syllabus, duly performed, completed and graded, carrying a weightage of 20 marks.

Student must gain at least 40% of the total marks allotted for the Term Work of the academic year, in order to make him/her eligible to appear for the examination.

- ⇒ Study of two dimensional space and its organisational possibilities.
- ⇒ Grid system.
- ⇒ Concept of 'Golden point'. Eye movement.
- ⇒ Elements of pictorial expression related to concepts of space and form.
Developing an awareness of pictorial elements such as point, line, shape, volume, texture, light and colour.
- ⇒ Developing awareness of pictorial space - division of space, form and its relation with space.
- ⇒ Laws of Design - Balance (Formal/Informal), Unity, Harmony, Continuity, Rhythm.
- ⇒ Discord Theory.
- ⇒ Principles of Design. Repetition, Domination, Radiation, Isolation. Symmetrical/Asymmetrical.
- ⇒ Juxtaposition.
- ⇒ Study and Application of various Colour Schemes - Achromatic - Monochromatic - Polychromatic - High, Average and Low Key - High, Average and Low Contrast, and colour harmonies - Complimentary - Split Complimentary - Double Split Complimentary - Analogous - Warm and Cool.
- ⇒ Handling of various types of material (such as Pencil, Pen, Brushes, Water colours, Poster Colours, Pastels and crayons, Inks or mix-media and rendering techniques such as flat application of colour, stippling, broad patches with painting knife, splatters and accidental throwing and exploring some specific techniques like collage, print making, stencil prints etc.) for pictorial organisation.
- ⇒ Optical Illusion. After Images.
- ⇒ Awareness and sensitivity about the design primitives - traditional - folk - contemporary - realistic - symbolic - abstract - geometrical etc.

8. 3 D DESIGN.

Studio Practicals per Academic Year: 84 Hours.

Paper: Not for Examination

Assignments per Academic Year: 05

Term Work: Term Work shall consist of at least 05 assignments covering the given syllabus, duly performed, completed and graded.

Student must gain at least 40% of the total marks allotted for the Term Work of the academic year, in order to make him/her eligible to appear for the examination.

- ⇒ To develop the sense of three dimensional structure and space
- ⇒ Principles of composition and the study of the principles that hold the structure.
- ⇒ Organisational possibilities in building up a structure - gravitational and mechanical principles.

- ⇒ High, Low relief and Round.
- ⇒ Assignments in organising various unit through a) Symmetrical load bearing structure. b) Cantilever construction. c) Flexibility and ability to stretch. d) Geometrical regularity. e) Arched structure. f) Control of tension. g) Hinged construction. h) Mobile. i) Locking and Inter-locking. j) Folding.
- ⇒ To develop aesthetic awareness about the structure and space around it with addition of light. If the design is functional - interactive, then its user- friendliness needs to be underlined.
- ⇒ Material Handling - Experiments through various types of material preferably currently available in the market, such as Paper, Card Board, Clay, Strings, Wires, Plaster of Paris, Wax.
- ⇒ Found objects/scrap material transformed into a 'sculpture' proves an interesting avenue which offers a student scope for creative expression.
- ⇒ Application of study of 3D Design into making an object. E.g. Pen stand, Open-air (Outdoor) sculpture, Memento etc.

9. PERSPECTIVE.

Studio Practicals per Academic Year: 30 Hours.

Paper: Not for Examination

Assignments per Academic Year: 04

Term Work: Term Work shall consist of at least 04 assignments covering the given syllabus, duly performed, completed and graded.

Student must gain at least 40% of the total marks allotted for the Term Work of the academic year, in order to make him/her eligible to appear for the examination.

The focus: Understanding the process of creating illusion of 3-dimensional space on a 2-dimensional surface.

- ⇒ Study of basic solids kept in space. Structural Design - Plan - Elevation - Section and - Parallel / Angular perspective.
- ⇒ Various types of perspectives - one point - two point - three point.
- ⇒ Exploded View.
- ⇒ Birds Eye-view.

10. VISUALISATION.

Studio Practicals per Academic Year: 60 Hours.

Paper: Not for Examination

Assignments per Academic Year: 04

Term Work: Term Work shall consist of at least 04 assignments covering the given syllabus, duly performed, completed and graded.

Student must gain at least 40% of the total marks allotted for the Term Work of the academic year, in order to make him/her eligible to appear for the examination.

The focus: Problem solving, evolving ideas from researched source material, knowledge and understanding various manual and mechanical skills - Knowledge of reproduction - Sharpening critical faculties - Offering visual response to design proposal - Special emphasis on developing visual vocabulary resulting into visual literacy and breaking down existing preconceptions.

- ⇒ What is Visualisation? Visualisation is a step-by-step process towards creating an artistic, effective and functional visual solution, visible to everyone, which is otherwise visible to the mental eyes of its creator.
- ⇒ Its scope and importance in design activity. The factors which influence the process of visualisation.
- ⇒ Thinking, Ideation and Creativity.
- ⇒ Simple exercises to improve thinking and ideation.

11. GRAPHIC DESIGN.

Studio Practicals per Academic Year: 80 Hours.

Paper: 80 Marks.

Duration: 5 Hours.

Assignments per Academic Year: 04

Term Work: 20 Marks.

Term Work shall consist of at least 04 assignments covering the given syllabus, duly performed, completed and graded, carrying a weightage of 20 marks.

Student must gain at least 40% of the total marks allotted for the Term Work of the academic year, in order to make him/her eligible to appear for the examination.

The focus: Graphic Design is an idea-based discipline that concerns the creation of visual material involving a union of text and image with primary focus on creative and effective design for communication. Understanding, analysing and evaluating data - information and generating communicative symbology for idea-based design solution. The assignments should be designed to encourage conceptual thinking and problem solving in context to design development.

- ⇒ The nature and scope of Graphic Design.
- ⇒ The difference between simplified and graphic design - simplification of a form from its realistic / photographic source - maintaining its identity - its symbolic interpretations.
- ⇒ Union of text and image. (Composing elements.)
- ⇒ Rendering styles (Contours, filled up, outline).
- ⇒ Use of colour. Symbolic - Visibility aspect of colour.

12. TYPOGRAPHY AND CALLIGRAPHY.

Studio Practicals per Academic Year: 120 Hours.

Paper: 80 Marks. Duration: 10 Hours. (Typography: 5 Hours, Calligraphy: 5 Hours)

Assignments per Academic Year: 08

Term Work: 20 Marks.

Term Work shall consist of at least 08 assignments covering the given syllabus, duly performed, completed and graded, carrying a weightage of 20 marks.

Student must gain at least 40% of the total marks allotted for the Term Work of the academic year, in order to make him/her eligible to appear for the examination.

LETTER STUDY.

The focus: Exploring the design possibilities of a letterform in various contexts, disciplines and environments. This is an essential module for each admitted student. The module should be conducted before the commencement of the actual teaching programme of Typography and Calligraphy. The outcome of this module may be linked with 2D design to make a student understand the concept of layout. During the module handling possibilities of various calligraphic tools such as pencil, Rotring - Aerograph pen, cut-nib, pens, brush etc. and materials (Mediums) inks, poster colours, water colours, on various surfaces, may be explored.

- ⇒ History of writing. Various writing cultures.
- ⇒ Designing and constructing a Letterform as a sign.
- ⇒ Letterform - positive and negative space, in and around it.
- ⇒ Letterform as a picture - as a decorative element.
- ⇒ Letterform as a picture - as a primitive for design.

TYPOGRAPHY

The focus: To understand letterform as a sign for its spontaneity, grace, design and impact and to train an eye for traditional as well as contemporary typographic aesthetics.

- ⇒ Understanding construction of a Letterform with the help of Roman Alphabets. Physical characteristics of a Letterform serifs, x-height, ascenders, descenders, upper and lower case, thick/thin/italics etc.
- ⇒ Optical and mechanical spacing in between the letters of a word. Word space.
- ⇒ Alignments.
- ⇒ Drop letters.
- ⇒ Expressive Typography. Designing a Logo.
- ⇒ Type family, font.

CALLIGRAPHY

The focus: The calligraphic skill is valuable in quite a few areas of design. Hence a student should be able to appreciate and understand a calligraphic letterform as a sign for its spontaneity, grace and vitality. The study of traditional, contemporary and experimental calligraphy will help to train an eye for calligraphic aesthetics.

- ⇒ Calligraphic experiments with the help of tool, material (medium) and surface.
- ⇒ Basic strokes.
- ⇒ Creating Calligraphic patterns.
- ⇒ Calligrams.
- ⇒ Decorative aspect/s of Calligraphy.
- ⇒ Study of One Classical Roman Calligraphy Style 'Humanistic'.
- ⇒ Study of Devanagari Calligraphy.

13. LAYOUT

Studio Practicals per Academic Year: 48 Hours.

Paper: 80 Marks.

Duration: 5 Hours.

Assignments per Academic Year: 03

Term Work: 20 Marks.

Term Work shall consist of at least 03 assignments covering the given syllabus, duly performed, completed and graded, carrying a weightage of 20 marks.

Student must gain at least 40% of the total marks allotted for the Term Work of the academic year, in order to make him/her eligible to appear for the examination.

The focus: Utilising skills acquired from the course of 2D design while arranging elements in the given space, to create specific effect and atmosphere, for a preconceived purpose of communication media, especially print.

- ⇒ Use of principles and laws of 2D Design in constructing layouts for communication.
- ⇒ Elements of Layout.
- ⇒ Grid system. Eye movement. Golden Point.
- ⇒ Alignments. Use of colour.
- ⇒ Balance: Formal and informal.

14. INTRODUCTION TO ELECTIVE SUBJECTS: THEORY.

Lectures per Academic Year: 36 Hours.

Paper: Not for Examination

Tutorials per Academic Year: 02 X 5 Elective Subjects = 10

Term Work: Term Work shall consist of at least 10 tutorials (02 x 5 Elective Subjects) covering the given syllabus, duly performed, completed and graded.

Student must gain at least 40% of the total marks allotted for the Term Work of the academic year, in order to make him/her eligible to appear for the examination.

The focus: A training programme for various graphic design areas, which would culminate into an elective subject for a student, appearing for Applied Art Degree, is part of this course. An overview with stress upon the introduction of basic fundamentals of these Elective subjects should be offered.

The list of Elective subjects and portions to be covered under each one:

a. LETTERING AND TYPOGRAPHY.

Lectures per Academic Year: 03 Hours.

Importance of written words in the world of communication - Lettering, Typography and Calligraphy - The difference - Definitions - Nature and Scope - Type and its characters - Type faces - Type Family - Technical aspects of Typography (i.e. type calculation for reproduction) - Professional Scope.

b. ILLUSTRATION.

Lectures per Academic Year: 03 Hours.

The importance of illustration for communication from pre-historic period to the modern age of electronic communication - Definition - The different areas of Communication Design where illustration is applicable - The role of illustration in communication - Professional Scope.

c. PHOTOGRAPHY.

Lectures per Academic Year: 06 Hours.

Importance of Photography in communication media - History of Photography - Camera and Accessories - Lights and lighting - Developers and other chemicals - Negative, Positive material - Photography and Reproduction process - Professional Scope.

d. COMPUTER GRAPHICS.

Lectures per Academic Year: 18 Hours.

Introduction to Computers - hardware - input and output devices - software - file management - memory - primary and secondary - introduction to various software useful for DTP, art and design purpose. Introduction to multi-media.

e. EXHIBITION-DISPLAY DESIGN AND STAGE CRAFT.

Lectures per Academic Year: 06 Hours.

Importance of the subject in the field of Visual Communication - Historical background of the subject in early, medieval and modern period - General Classification - Types and styles of the Exhibition Display, Design and Stage Craft - Major Career options and Scope. Introduction to event management.

16. INTRODUCTION TO SUBSIDIARY SUBJECT: PRINTING - THEORY.

Lectures per Academic Year: 58 Hours.

Paper: Not for Examination.

Tutorials per Academic Year: 02

Term Work: Term Work shall consist of at least 02 tutorials covering the given syllabus, duly performed, completed and graded.

Student must gain at least 40% of the total marks allotted for the Term Work of the academic year, in order to make him/her eligible to appear for the examination.

The focus: In the field of Communication and Graphic Design Printing occupies an important place. This subject is directly related to the reproduction of the creation of visual material involving a union of text and image with primary focus on creative and effective design for mass communication.

Introduction to the subject printing - History of Printing - Major printing methods - Study of various printing processes - Study of 'TYPE', type setting, Type Calculation - Line and Half-tone jobs, their reproduction, processing on Camera and scanners - Half-tone, Screen and their relation with job, paper, ink and printing process - Various kinds of images for reproduction by printing processes - Study of paper, its kinds and sizes - printing inks - job suitability for various printing processes.

Note: Students are expected to answer tutorials for Elective and Subsidiary subjects, in English only.

Second Year B.F.A. (Applied Art)

Second Year Examination in the branch of Applied Art.

O. ___ The SECOND YEAR Examination leading to the Degree of Bachelor of Fine Arts will be conducted by the University of Mumbai and no candidate will be admitted to SECOND YEAR examination unless he has kept two terms in the college of art, affiliated to the University, subsequent to his passing the First Year B.F.A. leading to the degree of Bachelor of Fine Arts and unless he produces from the principal of the college of art a certificate:

Mediums: Pencil, Pen and ink, Crayon, Charcoal, Pastels, Colours etc.

4. TYPOGRAPHY AND CALLIGRAPHY.

Studio Practicals per Academic Year: 80 Hours.

Paper: 80 Marks. Duration: 10 Hours. (Typography: 5 Hours. Calligraphy: 5 Hours.)

Assignments per Academic Year: 06

Term Work: 20 Marks.

Term Work shall consist of at least 06 assignments covering the given syllabus, duly performed, completed and graded, carrying a weightage of 20 marks.

Student must gain at least 40% of the total marks allotted for the Term Work of the academic year, in order to make him/her eligible to appear for the examination.

TYPOGRAPHY

⇒ Type Study - Type Character and its importance in expressing any specific feeling and emotion.

⇒ Typographic Compositions in 2D - 3D and their applications.

⇒ Typographic Expression in a form of setting up a line. (to create understanding about mechanical and optical spacing.)

⇒ Use of Grid system in Typographic layouts for books and newspapers.

⇒ Typographic application in Communication media.

CALLIGRAPHY

⇒ Study of Calligraphy in respect to tools, material, and surface.

- ⇒ Study of Classic Roman Calligraphic styles: Roundhand, Gothic Miniscule / Magiscule etc. - (A student is expected to learn at least one style thoroughly.)
- ⇒ Study of Devanagari Calligraphic style in totality.
- ⇒ Fusion of Roman and Devanagari Calligraphic forms.
- ⇒ Application of Calligraphy for simple works like certificates/ citations/scrolls etc.

5. VISUALISATION.

Studio Practicals per Academic Year: 70 Hours.

Paper: Not for examination.

Assignments per Academic Year: 06

Term Work: Term Work shall consist of at least 06 assignments covering the given syllabus, duly performed, completed and graded.

Student must gain at least 40% of the total marks allotted for the Term Work of the academic year, in order to make him/her eligible to appear for the examination.

The focus: To understand and be able to create a systematic, step-by-step approach towards effective ideation, which will help a student solve a problem with a practical, functional and aesthetically appealing solution.

To understand the chain-process of a. Problem solving b. Analysing data material c. Evolving ideas from researched source material d. ideation and final output with help of proper art direction. The stress of practical assignments should be to offer visual response to design proposal, with special emphasis on generating visual vocabulary resulting into visual literacy and breaking down existing preconceptions.

- ⇒ Exploring various ideation techniques through exercises.
- ⇒ Creative Visual Thinking.
- ⇒ Ideas for various Design areas.

6. INTRODUCTION TO ELECTIVE SUBJECTS: PRACTICAL.

Studio Practicals per Academic Year: 90 Hours.

Paper: Not for examination.

Assignments per Academic Year: 02 (in each Elective Subject)

Term Work: Term Work shall consist of at least 02 x 5 Elective Subjects = 10 assignments covering the given syllabus, duly performed, completed and graded.

Student must gain at least 40% of the total marks allotted for the Term Work of the academic year, in order to make him/her eligible to appear for the examination.

The focus: A training programme for various graphic design areas, which would culminate into an elective subject for a student, appearing for Applied Art Degree, is part of this course. On the basis of an overview of these Elective subjects taken in the earlier academic year a composite practical oriented module for all the students should be planned during the early part of second term. Thus every student will be reasonably exposed to all the graphic design areas and an elective subject which he/she would like to study further.

The following areas of individual electives should be focused while conducting the assignment.

a. LETTERING AND TYPOGRAPHY.

As this subject is a part of main course of practical studies, hence no specific assignments need to be conducted.

b. ILLUSTRATION.

Studies conducted in subject 'Drawing', should be used as basic reference, which will be able to establish a link between the two subjects. An assignment like a story illustration or a cover design should be able to offer a scope to explore the communicative values of an image and its gradual transformation into the illustration.

c. PHOTOGRAPHY.

Handling of Camera and its Accessories - Composing for a picture - Lights and lighting - Focusing and shooting - Developers and other chemicals - Developing in the Darkroom - Preparing a print - Negative, Positive material - Photography and its relation to Reproduction processes.

d. COMPUTER GRAPHICS.

A detailed overview of word processing, drawing, designing, rendering, animation - Introduction to Advanced Software and Hardware and their applications in various fields - Career opportunities - Profession and Management.

Desktop Publishing: Introduction to page layout software.

e. EXHIBITION-DISPLAY DESIGN AND STAGE CRAFT.

A counter display or a trophy should be planned and executed as a 3D model. At the same time working drawings of a simple stall with understanding of perspective should be encouraged.

7. INTRODUCTION TO SUBSIDIARY SUBJECT: PRINTING - PRACTICAL.

Studio Practicals per Academic Year: 90 Hours.

Paper: Not for examination.

Assignments per Academic Year: 02

Term Work: Term Work shall consist of at least 02 assignments covering the given syllabus, duly performed, completed and graded.

Student must gain at least 40% of the total marks allotted for the Term Work of the academic year, in order to make him/her eligible to appear for the examination.

The Focus: Typesetting for layout design - hot metal and DTP working - Camera work for line and half-tone reproduction - Surface preparation and image making for printing - Practical working of printing processes - Screen printing practicals for design reproduction - Art work preparation for print production.

A week's concentrated module in each term, devoted to the subject should cover the topics given above. Additionally an industry visit can be planned to explain certain aspects of the subject.

8. GRAPHIC DESIGN.

Studio Practicals per Academic Year: 90 Hours.

Paper: Not for examination.

Assignments per Academic Year: 04

Term Work: Term Work shall consist of at least 04 assignments covering the given syllabus, duly performed, completed and graded.

Student must gain at least 40% of the total marks allotted for the Term Work of the academic year, in order to make him/her eligible to appear for the examination.

The focus: Graphic Design is an idea-based discipline that concerns the creation of visual material involving a union of text and image with primary focus on creative and effective design for communication. Understanding, analysing and evaluating data - information and generating communicative symbology for idea-based design solution. The assignments should be designed to encourage conceptual thinking and problem solving in context to design development.

- ⇒ The nature and scope for Graphic Design in the social communication today.
- ⇒ The different signs used to communicate with the masses and classes. Social - Religious - Economical - Medical - Industrial - Cultural signs etc.
- ⇒ Union of text and image. (Composing elements.)
- ⇒ Rendering styles (Contours, filled up, outline), including 3D aspect.
- ⇒ Use of colour. Colour coding. Symbolic - Visibility aspect of colour.
- ⇒ Application of Symbol and logo for stationary and other media of 2D as well as 3D designs.

9. PACKAGE DESIGN.

Studio Practicals per Academic Year: 90 Hours.

Paper: 80 Marks.

Duration: 05 Hours.

Assignments per Academic Year: 04

Term Work: 20 Marks.

Term Work shall consist of at least 04 assignments covering the given syllabus, duly performed, completed and graded, carrying a weightage of 20 marks.

Student must gain at least 40% of the total marks allotted for the Term Work of the academic year, in order to make him/her eligible to appear for the examination.

The focus: The package design is a specialised branch of studies. Understanding the importance of packaging as one of the media of communication design, developing a user-friendly shape and designing surface of a product in an artistic manner need to be included in the training programme for a communication designer.

- ⇒ Fundamentals of package design.
- ⇒ Designing principles of package design.
- ⇒ Aspects that influences package design. Consumer - consumer behaviour - handling mannerisms - shelf appeal - protection to the contents - transportability - stackability - display - costing and estimating.
- ⇒ Elements of package design. Logo - Colour - Shape - Text.
- ⇒ Types of packages. Reusable. Use and Throw. Festival. Promotional etc.
- ⇒ Materials used for package design.
- ⇒ Labels, Cartons, Tags, Covers, CD Covers, Cassette Covers.
- ⇒ Shopping Bags. Wrapping papers.
- ⇒ Information material given along with the package.

10. INFORMATION DESIGN.

Studio Practicals per Academic Year: 90 Hours.

Paper: 80 Marks.

Assignments per Academic Year: 04

Duration: 05 Hours.

Term Work: 20 Marks.

Term Work shall consist of at least 04 assignments covering the given syllabus, duly performed, completed and graded, carrying a weightage of 20 marks.

Student must gain at least 40% of the total marks allotted for the Term Work of the academic year, in order to make him/her eligible to appear for the examination.

The focus: Information has an important role to play in every segment of the society.

Hence it needs to be imparted in the functional and aesthetically appealing manner for better communication. Today in the world of Information technology, designed information has gained a vital importance.

- ⇒ What is Information Design?
- ⇒ Systematic approach to design information - Content - content planning - hierarchical sequence.
- ⇒ Design principles employed in information design.
- ⇒ Time tables, Schedule cards, Invitation cards, Menu cards, Shade cards, Charts, Maps etc.

11. COMMUNICATION DESIGN.

Studio Practicals per Academic Year: 120 Hours.

Paper: 80 Marks.

Duration: 10 Hours.

Assignments per Academic Year: 06

Term Work: 20 Marks.

Term Work shall consist of at least 06 assignments covering the given syllabus, duly performed, completed and graded, carrying a weightage of 20 marks.

Student must gain at least 40% of the total marks allotted for the Term Work of the academic year, in order to make him/her eligible to appear for the examination.

The focus: Specific purpose of communication in print media. Principles of communication - Exposure of various media to consumer - Characteristics of various media in terms of its size, visibility, duration, placement, reproduction techniques etc.

- ⇒ Daily consumer - Consumer durable products.
- ⇒ Assignments based on the principles of design.
- ⇒ Importance of colour.
- ⇒ Press layout. Size upto 3 columns x 30 cms. Or 100 cc.
- ⇒ Magazine Advertisement. Size: Single page. 21cms x 28 cms.
- ⇒ Poster Design. Size upto 10 inches x 15 inches. Or 25 cms x 30 cms.
- ⇒ Hoarding Design. Size upto 10 inches x 20 inches. Or 25 cms. X 50 cms.

Objectives of The Course :

Knowing the artist's tools and materials and finding their possibilities and limitations through series of free and elaborate exercises. Understanding of the basic forms and the fundamentals of drawing and design, Training in observation and expression. This covers the training both theoretical and practical. The student is made aware of the basic shapes and forms together with his understanding of space, in which these are relatively placed. In the practical application, these fundamentals are applied in drawing and sculptures where student learns to see nature in a subjective way and understands the basic relationship between seeing and feeling. Thus he is made familiar with visual perceptions : Form and Matter, relation between the objects of art and nature, origin of plastic arts as a way of human sensibilities and human urge for expression. He is also taught through series of exercises, how and artist sees and expresses, how most of the objects have more than one meaning. Ultimately, the end of such a course is to build up and awareness in student about man's creative expressions and through the practical assignments offering them an opportunity to realise their own potentiality and limitations.
