

Call for Papers: 2nd Meet of the Mumbai Philosophy Research Scholars Forum

The city of Mumbai has had a long and illustrious history of academic engagement with Philosophy over the years. The Mumbai Philosophy Research Scholars Forum is an attempt to bring together research scholars working in different areas of Philosophy with different research and academic institutes of Mumbai and neighboring cities. It is a platform for M.Phil. and PhD scholars in Philosophy registered in institutes like The Department of Philosophy (University of Mumbai), The Department of Humanities and Social Sciences (IIT- Bombay), S.P. Phule Pune University and others to come together and discuss their ongoing research work with fellow scholars and faculty members from all over Mumbai and receive valuable feedback and comments for the same. With this aim, on the lines of the first meet of the forum (that took place on 27th March of 2018), The Department of Philosophy, University of Mumbai will host the second meet for the forum where scholars can present papers on or related to their ongoing research by choosing from the following pool of broad themes (Scholars may present short papers on or related to the given themes even if their research work doesn't happen to fall under the list on themes.)
