To,

Chief Secretary
Government of Maharashtra

Sub: Increasing the Outreach of Books and Journals of Publication Division, Ministry of Information & Broadcasting for the benefit of children and youth of the State.

Respected sir,

Kindly refer to 24th July meeting where we discussed the issue of increasing the outreach of books and journals the Publication Division, Ministry of Information & Broadcasting for the children and youth the State.

These publications are heavily subsidized for the benefits of masses. They represent a wide array of subjects which include India's great cultural heritage, builders of modern India, great women of India, works of Mahatma Gandhi, national icons like Vallabhbhai Patel, speeches of Presidents and Prime Ministers, journals like Yojana (Marathi) and Employment News etc. In this digital age and rapidly changing reading habits of the masses, these publications offer the youngsters a chance to benefit from the great values and information that lies in them.

These journals and books imbibe extraordinary inspirational and educational values in them and would be of immense utility and benefit to children and Youth of Maharashtra.

I shall be grateful, if a permanent mechanism could be established to give much needed boost to the outreach of such important publications. Some of them could be- (a) Subscription of Yojana (Marathi) it could be introduced as a gift to all the meritorious students of Government Schools above the 8th class. This would not only give a great boost to their general awareness but also prepare them for competitive exams as well. One year subscription costs Rs 230/- It could be regularly subscribed for all the state government schools, aided schools and College libraries.

(b) The speeches of Hon'ble President Prime Minister can be procured each year for all the Universities, College & School Libraries, State & District Libraries.

(c) Books on builders of modern India and its cultural heritage may be ordered by Department of Education and can be supplied for distribution to all schools in the districts of Maharashtra.

Copy of list of the some other useful publications is being attached along with for ready reference.

A word from your office to the concerned officials & departments in this regard would greatly enhance the outreach of publication of such outstanding content for the benefit for the children and youth of the state. I shall be grateful if you could extend support in this regard.
