

On the occasion of “International Women’s Day’ Department of Law organized traditional Cultural Programme and Special Guest Lecture on ‘Women Empowerment in the Era of 2020’ at Department of Law, University of Mumbai, Fort Campus. On 7th March, 2020.

Adv. Poonam Makhijani, Advocate, Bombay High Court delivered key note speech and expressed her views on this occasion. In her key note speech Adv. Poonam Makhijani delivered lecture on various laws, judgments on women empowerment in India. She also urged all women audience to develop self confidence and help each other in their social life.

Dr. Rajeshri Varhadi, Professor & Head Department of Law welcome the Guest and audience. In her welcome speech Dr. Rajeshri Varhadi madam highlighted the theme of united nation organization on the occasion of International Women Day. In her welcome speech Dr. Rajeshri Varhadi madam discussed various laws for the women empowerment in India and also highlighted status of women in the Era of 2020.

Mr. Sudhir Barde, Civil Judge, Nanded Dist. Court was Special Guest for this programme. Mr. Sudhir Barade discussed the role of judiciary for protecting rights of women in India.

Dr. Rashmi M. Oza, Professor & I/c Dean Interdisciplinary Studies delivered her speech on this occasion. Dr. Rashmi Oza madam explained International various international treaties and convention for women empowerment.

Dr. Sanjay Jadhav briefly pointed out the role of Government including legislative and executive bodies for women empowerment in India. The programme was thereafter continued with traditional and cultural activities by teaching and non-teaching staff of the Mumbai University.

On this occasion non-teaching ladies staff expressed their views and conveyed their gratitude towards Department of Law for organizing such kind of programme.

Prof. Alka Patil propose the vote of thanks.

The programme was ended with National Anthem.

copyright © Bill Frymire

