INTRODUCTION

“We will know what type of education to provide, if we know what kind of society we want.”

This simple but powerful quote by John Dewey helps us to understand, the very purpose of Gandhian education. Gandhiji detailed his thoughts, on education for a new, independent India, which was labelled by him, as “Nai Talim” that would enable every Indian citizen, to participate in building a good society.

OBJECTIVE

To implement Gandhiji’s dream of self-sufficient Bharat, a virtual program of Nai Talim was, jointly organized by Adarsh Shikshak Mandal, Shree Bapusaheb DD Vispute College of Education, New Panvel, Navi Mumbai and University of Mumbai, Thane sub campus, Mumbai, on 2nd October 2020, at 11 AM, to mark the birth anniversary of Mahatma Gandhiji and Lal Bahadur Shashtriji.

Intrductory session

The chief guest for this occasion was Mrs.Nidhiji Chaudhary, District Magistrate for Raigarh District. The program was presided by the Chairman, Shree Dhanrajji Vispute and Secretary Mrs. Sangeetaji Vispute. The special guests for the occasion were Mrs.Sheetalji Sonavne, Sarpanch Gram panchayat, Devad and Manisha Karpe, Co-coordinator MGNCRE,Hydrabad.

The function was hosted by Dr. Sunita Magre, Professor & I/C Director, University of Mumbai, Thane Sub Campus & Dr.Seema Kamble , Principal Vispute College

Welcome speech by Dr.Seema Kamble

All the dignitaries were welcomed by the Dr.Seema Kamble She narrated the great qualities of Mahatma Gandhaji and Lal bahadur Shastriji and their immense contributions to the society, particularly the downtrodden and weaker sections.

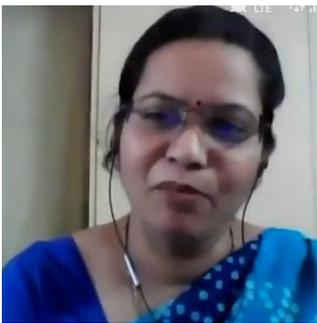

The day’s main objective she said was the discourse between the chief guest and the students on the deep and valuable thoughts of the great leaders.She also mentioned that implementation of “Nai Talim” in Vispute college is not just a part of celebration now but of deep commitment for a long time.

Introductory speech by Dr. Sunita Magre

This was an address of Dr. Sunita Magre madam to the students. She mentioned that “Nai Talim” has a wide scope and will continue to remain “Nai”-innovative and creative. She appreciated Vispute College for carrying out activities under “Nai Talim” regularly and assured that she will cite Vispute College as a lead college for such activities.

Session by Manisha Karape

This was followed by an address of Manisha Karpe to the students. She expressed her gratitude towards the concept of Gandhiji’s idea of developing the mind, body and soul.

Talk by Chief Guest Nidhi Chaudhary

Then there was the most awaited address by the chief guest, Mrs. Nidhi Chaudhary Madam. She mentioned that Swadeshi Movement has completed 100 years and now the Prime Minister has announced for a AtmaNirbhar Bharat. This proves that the messages given to us by Gandhiji are all so relevant today. This was so very visionary on Gandhiji’s part that he addressed the timeless problems of India. She expressed her views that we need to understand that Gandhiji the Mahatma, was not fighting for independence but something much higher than that as is known by his great value sets.

Subsequently, all the students of the college presented presentation on life and contribution of Mahatma Gandhiji and Lalbahadur Shastriji.

Concluding Remark by Chairman Dhanrajji Vispute

The program concluded with Chairman's appreciative and motivation speech for the students and teachers.

Thank you
