Syllabus of Advanced Diploma in Gradus Peritus 1 in Italian Language and Culture Part I

(To be introduced from Academic Year 2019-20)

Justification Gradus Peritus 1 in Italian Language and Culture

1. There is a great need for starting a course in Italian language and culture in Mumbai as there is no such course being taught in Mumbai even by private players.
Italian is a rich language and Italy has an ancient vibrant culture. It belongs to the Indo-European group of languages. Knowledge of this language and culture is increasingly valued in a globalised world. The city of Mumbai which is hub of Indo Italian collaborations has no affordable option for students to study Italian language and culture.
Marathi, Hindi and many other Indian languages have language structures similar to Italian. Learners will be taught to evolve their own learning strategies focussing on similarities of structure while also underlining the individuality of the Italian language and culture
2. UGC has always recommended starting foreign language and culture courses that improve employability of students. In today's world, a foreign language competency is one of the markers of a good bio-data.
3. The Italian language courses are being conducted by an Assistant Professor in Italian appointed from Italy by the Italian Ministry of External Affairs for a period of six years. He joined his duty in March 2019 and since then has been engaging lectures for students free of cost. Until this course is approved by the Academic Council and other university bodies it cannot be introduced officially, fees collected and exams conducted. As soon as this course is approved by the Academic council students will register pay fees and appear for exams on 29 and 30 April 2020.
4. The Gradus Peritus 1 course in Italian language and culture started by the University is self-financed. This course will be taught till 2025 by Dr Antonio Bove, appointed as appointed from Italy by the Italian Ministry of External Affairs. His salary is paid by the Italian government and there is no financial burden on the University of Mumbai. Presently there is no qualified faculty in the Mumbai to teach this course.
5. The duration of the course is 90 hours as per the specifications Common European Framework of Reference for Languages formulated by the European Union <https://www.coe.int/en/web/common-european-framework-reference-languages/level-descriptions> It can be taught over a semester or in a more intensive manner depending on student demand.
6. The minimum intake would be 15 students and the maximum intake will be 60 students. No admissions have been given as this course is not been ratified by the Academic Council. No of students attending free of cost since March 2019 is at least 10.
7. The student will have excellent opportunities in the job market because of the rich presence of Italian companies in the Indian market either as independent employers or as collaborators with the Indian industry. The Baramati belt in Maharashtra is full of Italian companies looking for Italian speaking employees and the tertiary sector fed by this Italian speaking industries (hospitality sector etc) also have a high demand for such qualified students.

Innovative Programme 2019-2020

UNIVERSITY OF MUMBAI

Centre for European Studies

Programme: Gradus Peritus 1 in ITALIAN language and culture

Credits: 2

Duration: 90 hrs

Objectives:

1. Imparting intermediate level of communication skills (threshold level) Italian language and culture for level 3 (Gradus Intermedius 1).
2. Teaching of Italian language and culture to non-native speakers through the latest language pedagogy task oriented approach (méthode actionnelle).
3. Facilitating of teaching of Italian by latest teaching methods, techniques and tools with additional content generation for audio visual learning programmes used across the world in teaching various modern languages.
4. Popularizing the study of Italian language and culture in India.
5. Can understand the main points of clear standard input on familiar matters regularly encountered in work, school, leisure, etc.
6. Can deal with most situations likely to arise while travelling in an area where the language is spoken.
7. Enabling a learner to produce simple connected text on topics that are familiar or of personal interest.
8. Enabling a learner to describe experiences and events, dreams, hopes and ambitions and briefly give reasons and explanations for opinions and plans.
9. Imparting Language Acquisition Techniques through the communicative method in a systematic, scientific manner.
10. Standardizing Italian language and culture courses in progressive stages for beginners (Ab Initio 1, Ab initio 2), intermediate (Gradus intermedius 1, Gradus intermedius 2) and advanced levels (Gradus peritus 1, Gradus peritus 2).
11. Creating a vibrant and democratic academic culture that fosters initiative and independent thinking in students instead of learning languages by rote.
12. Using online resources judiciously.

Rationale of the Gradus Peritus Course in Italian language and culture

Italian is a rich language and Italy has an ancient vibrant culture. It belongs to the Indo-European group of languages. Knowledge of this language and culture is increasingly valued in a globalised world. The city of Mumbai which is hub of Indo Italian collaborations has no affordable option for students to study Italian language and culture. Marathi, Hindi and many other Indian languages have language structures similar to Italian. Learners will be taught to evolve their own learning strategies focussing on similarities of structure while also underlining the individuality of the Italian language and culture

Programme Description:

Level C1.1 corresponds to proficient users of the language, i.e. those able to perform complex tasks related to work and study. The learner acquires the following skills:-

- He/she can understand a wide range of more demanding, longer texts, and recognise implicit meaning in them.
- He/she can express him/herself fluently and spontaneously without much obvious searching for the right expression.
- He/she can use language flexibly and effectively for social, academic and professional purposes. He/she can produce clear, well-structured, detailed text on complex subjects, showing correct use of organisational patterns, connectors and cohesive devices.

The programme shall enable the learners to understand the main points when clear, standard language is used and the focus is on familiar topics associated with work, school, leisure time, etc. The learner will be able to deal with most situations typically encountered in the language region. He/She will be able to express him/herself simply and coherently regarding familiar topics and areas of personal interest. Can report on experiences and events, describe dreams, hopes and goals as well as make short statements to justify or explain his/her own views and plans.

N.B.: Although progress will depend on the type of course and the individual student, students can expect to reach the C1.1 level in Italian with 450 hours of cumulative instruction (Ab initio 1+ Ab initio 2+ Gradus intermedius 1+ Gradus intermedius 2 + Gradus Peritus 1).
