UNIVERSITY OF MUMBAI

Syllabus of Certificate Course Part II Ab Initio 2 in Italian Language and Culture

(To be introduced from Academic Year 2019-20)

Justification Ab initio 2 in Italian Language and Culture

1. There is a great need for starting a course in Italian language and culture in Mumbai as there is no such course being taught in Mumbai even by private players.
Italian is a rich language and Italy has an ancient vibrant culture. It belongs to the Indo-European group of languages. Knowledge of this language and culture is increasingly valued in a globalised world. The city of Mumbai which is hub of Indo Italian collaborations has no affordable option for students to study Italian language and culture.
Marathi, Hindi and many other Indian languages have language structures similar to Italian. Learners will be taught to evolve their own learning strategies focussing on similarities of structure while also underlining the individuality of the Italian language and culture
2. UGC has always recommended starting foreign language and culture courses that improve employability of students. In today's world, a foreign language competency is one of the markers of a good bio-data.
3. The Italian language courses are being conducted by an Assistant Professor in Italian appointed from Italy by the Italian Ministry of External Affairs for a period of six years. He joined his duty in March 2019 and since then has been engaging lectures for students free of cost. Until this course is approved by the Academic Council and other university bodies it cannot be introduced officially, fees collected and exams conducted. As soon as this course is approved by the Academic council students will register pay fees and appear for exams on 29 and 30 April 2020.
4. The Ab initio 2 course in Italian language and culture started by the University is self-financed. This course will be taught till 2025 by Dr Antonio Bove, appointed as appointed from Italy by the Italian Ministry of External Affairs. His salary is paid by the Italian government and there is no financial burden on the University of Mumbai. Presently there is no qualified faculty in the Mumbai to teach this course.
5. The duration of the course is 90 hours as per the specifications Common European Framework of Reference for Languages formulated by the European Union <https://www.coe.int/en/web/common-european-framework-reference-languages/level-descriptions> It can be taught over a semester or in a more intensive manner depending on student demand.
6. The minimum intake would be 15 students and the maximum intake will be 60 students. No admissions have been given as this course is not been ratified by the Academic Council. The number of students attending free of cost since March 2019 is at least 30.
7. The student will have excellent opportunities in the job market because of the rich presence of Italian companies in the Indian market either as independent employers or as collaborators with the Indian industry. The Baramati belt in Maharashtra is full of Italian companies looking for

Italian speaking employees and the tertiary sector fed by this Italian speaking industries (hospitality sector etc) also have a high demand for such qualified students.

Innovative Programme 2019-2020

UNIVERSITY OF MUMBAI

Centre for European Studies

7. Creating a vibrant and democratic academic culture that fosters initiative and independent thinking in students instead of learning languages by rote.
8. Using online resources judiciously.

Rationale of the Ab Initio 1 Course in ITALIAN language and culture

Italian is a rich language and Italy has an ancient vibrant culture. It belongs to the Indo-European group of languages. Knowledge of this language and culture is increasingly valued in a globalised world. The city of Mumbai which is hub of Indo Italian collaborations has no affordable option for students to study Italian language and culture. Marathi, Hindi and many other Indian languages have language structures similar to Italian. Learners will be taught to evolve their own learning strategies focussing on similarities of structure while also underlining the individuality of the Italian language and culture

Programme Description:

The programme shall enable the learners to

- Evaluate coworkers' performance in the workplace.
- Relate events from your past, including your weekend activities and interesting stories.
- Describe your past life, giving details about important milestones.
- Entertain someone in your home or visit a friend or colleague in their home.
- Discuss your vacation plans and tell friends and colleagues about your vacation afterwards.
- Talk about the natural world and travels to see animals and natural areas in your country.
- Talk about movies that you like and choose a movie to see with friends.

- Discuss clothing and what kind of clothes you like to wear.
- Engage in basic communication at work, including attending meetings on familiar topics.
- Describe an accident or injury, get medical help from a doctor and fill a prescription for medicine.
- Engage in basic business socializing, welcoming guests and attending networking events.
- Understand and make basic business proposals in your area of expertise.
- Talk about and explain the rules of games.

N.B.: Although progress will depend on the type of course and the individual student, students can expect to reach the A2 level in Italian with 180 hours of cumulative instruction (Ab initio 1+Ab initio 2).
