

In accordance with various applications in different industry, department has established "Department-Industry Partnership cell" in year 2020 to strengthen the relation between department and industry. Purpose of the cell is to provide consultancy service to different industries to resolve their problems statistically. Even before forming such a body formally department has provided consultancy service to collect data unbiasedly and to draw valid inferences based on these collected data.