About the Course:

As part of the Public Policy program at the University of Mumbai, students are trained to become policy interventionists for the larger good of the society. The MA (Hons) Public Policy is a professional program which encourages its pupils to get actively involved in understanding policy processes. Some of the students who have been a part of the program have interned with the State Election Commission of Maharashtra, Tribal Development Department of Government of Maharashtra, some consulates. While working in different consulates, students were engaged in understanding the economy of different countries viz-a-viz India. The course invites professionals from various walks of life, researchers from think tanks, academics from reputed institutions like IIMs, TISS, Institute of Science and several senior bureaucrats who have first-hand experience of policy making to enrich the understanding of students in policy studies. The course demands that the students take up internships with government organizations, civil society organisations, autonomous agencies and think tanks

Date of Commencement August 30, 2021. Interested students are requested to register by clicking on the link below
