Certificate Course in Japanese (Level JLPT N5)

The main aim of this course is to initially teach the students the two phonetic scripts of Japanese, the Hiragana and the Katakana. Then to introduce the students to elementary knowledge of the language, its grammar and phonetics, ensuring that they have diverse grammar exercises for practice.

Along with the practice of formal language structures, they would also be taught how these structures need to be applied in actual situations. This course shall emphasize upon communicative competence in Japanese writing, speaking and listening skills.

Once the students have developed a good level of comfort with the two phonetic scripts, they would also be introduced to the pictorial script, the Kanji. They would be taught 120 kanji with their multiple readings in this course.

Equivalent to JLPT N5

Level N5: The student can understand and use familiar everyday expressions and very basic phrases aimed at the satisfaction of needs of a concrete type. Can introduce him/herself and others and can ask and answer questions about personal details such as where he/she lives, people he/she knows and things he/she has. Can interact in a simple way provided the other person talks slowly and clearly and is prepared to help.
