New ordinances 6657 & 6658 relating to the Advanced Diploma III in German (C1Level).

1. The New Education Policy (NEP 2020) emphasizes upon making students global citizens. Teaching a technologically and culturally advanced foreign language like German is a step in this direction.
2. With the introduction of this course we are bringing our Advanced Diploma in German Course on par with the C1 Level of the internationally recognized language proficiency level as per the Common European Reference Framework, which is the standard global norm.
3. Bringing this parity with international language proficiency level shall make the certification of University of Mumbai internationally recognized.
4. This will increase not only the employability of our students, but also facilitate their admission to programmes of higher education worldwide.
5. This part time course will be a self-financed course and will not be a burden to the University and qualified faculty is available to teach.
6. Duration: 240 hrs
7. Intake Capacity: 60 students per batch
