

The Department of Philosophy
University of Mumbai

Invites applications from prospective students without formal background in Philosophy, who are interested in pursuing the M.A. programme in philosophy (2022-2023), for the Workshop on Key Concepts in Philosophy (Indian and Western)

This is an Orientation Workshop to give a broad guidance to candidates without training in philosophy who wish avail of broad guidance to prepare for their Entrance Exam for M.A in Philosophy. The Resource Persons for this workshop will be expert faculty members from the discipline of philosophy.

The Entrance Exam is only for candidates without a formal background in philosophy. The Workshop will be held on the following weekends: June 25, 2022 (10.30 a.m to 4.30 p.m), June 26, 2022 (10.30 a.m to 4.30 p.m); July 2, 2022 (10.30 a.m to 4.30 p.m), July 3, 2022 (10.30 a.m to 4.30 p.m)

Venue of the Workshop:
Department of Philosophy,
University of Mumbai
1st Floor, Sant Dhyaneshwar Bhawan,
Vidyanagari Kalina Campus,
Santacruz (East), Mumbai – 400 098.

The time-table for the workshop will be communicated before its commencement to registered candidates on June 25, 2022.

There is a nominal fee of Rs.400 /- for the same.

Those who wish to register for this Workshop may please do so at the following University portal by selecting the course “Key Concepts in Philosophy Indian & Western 2022-23” from the list of courses on the following portal: <https://parttimecourses.mu.ac.in>.

For further enquiries you can call: 022-26533759 or write to deptofphil@hotmail.com

Dr. Meenal Katarnikar, Dr. Namita Nimbalkar, Dr. Narayan Gadade
(Coordinators of the Workshop) Department of Philosophy, University of Mumbai

