

PROJECT BASED ACTIVITIES: INSIGHTFUL JOURNEY

BY
DR.SUNITA MAGRE
DR. RENI FRANCIS

Dr. Sunita Vithalrao Magre, M.Sc. (Zoology,) M.Ed. SET, PhD (Education) working as Professor, Department of Education, University of Mumbai, India, 22 Years of Teaching experience, 101 Papers Published in Souvenir/Journals/Books at National & International level, written Book on TET (2014), having research experience on UGC Major Research Project, Guided to Ph.D and M.hil Students, She is committee member in various committees of various Universities, Worked in different capacities for various Examinations conducted by State & National bodies. She has authored 08 books, Worked as a Resource Person for Orientation Programmes, Refresher Courses, Summer and Winter classes and National Seminars, Editor and Translator of Self Learning Material at B.A. & M.A. Education of Open Universities, Organizing University, State, National and International Level Seminar/Workshop/ Conferences/ Symposium. She is an Editor and Member of Editorial Board and Review Committee of National and International Journal. Convener and Member of Syllabus Committee at B.A. & M.A.in Education M. Ed, M. Phil in education, Pre-Ph.D. Course Work in Education and Certificates Courses ,University of Mumbai. She is bestowed with the Prof, Indira Parikh Award for 50 Women in Education Leaders in Asia at World Education Congress,India.

Dr. Reni Francis is currently the Assistant Professor at Pillai College of Education and Research, Mumbai. She has a varied experience of more than 16 years in facilitating learning with school students, teachers and teacher educators in India and Kuwait. She has been awarded the Doctoral degree in Arts – Education, University of Mumbai, she has completed her M.A.(English) and M.Com. She has received D.Litt from University of South America. She has authored 14books and is recipient of various awards. She is the Member of Board of Studies Education, University of Mumbai. She is a recognized Ph.D guide (Education) of the University of Mumbai. She has attended several National and International level conferences and has published research articles.