Professor Vasanti Damle was a former faculty of the Department of History, University of Mumbai who passed away on 9th January 2023. As a student from the same department in 1989, I have many sweet memories of Damle madam. During my Masters, I recall her active involvement in several campus and departmental activities. She was always in the forefront especially for activities related to women's empowerment. Her approach was very secular and liberal towards students from all backgrounds. I joined the Department of History as a teaching faculty in August 2014, and I could see Vasanti Damle madam holding the book review sessions in the orientation course conducted by Academic Staff College. Moreover, I came to know from the participants of these above courses that the comments by Damle madam on their book reviews showed how well-read Damle madam was.
