

UNIVERSITY OF MUMBAI
DEPARTMENT OF LAW

NOTICE

ONLINE APPLICATION FOR ADMISSION TO LL.M.
PROGRAMME 2023-2024

Online applications are invited for admission to LL.M. programme 2023-2024 of the Department of Law, University of Mumbai

Candidates who have qualified the LL.M. CET Examination 2023 are required to follow the procedure as under:

Candidates will have to fill the Google Form using the link as under on or before 15.09.2023 till 5.00 p.m.

<https://forms.gle/RYcVH45CHvkVkivz9>

The Qualified Candidates will have to provide the Department of Law with their preferences on the LL.M Groups offered by the Department of Law through Google forms. The Qualified Candidates will be required to state their preference against the respective LL.M Groups between Nos. 1 to 6.

‘1’ being the most preferred Group of the Qualified Candidate’s choice and ‘6’ being the least preferred Group of the Qualified Candidate’s choice for admission.

Once the Department receives and scrutinises the applications through Google Forms, the Department will publish the merit list in accordance with the applicable norms, rules, regulations of University of Mumbai and reservation policy of the Government of Maharashtra & also subject to compliance with the requirements as stated herein.

On the basis of the information received as per the above forms, the merit list of candidates shall be displayed on the Notice Board of the Department of Law and shall also be uploaded on the webpage of the Department of Law, University of Mumbai (<https://mu.ac.in/departments-of-law>), which shall be notified in due course. The details of the subsequent procedure in respect of admission to the LL.M. Programme will be notified along with the Merit List.

In the event of equal marks secured by the candidates in the LL.M. CET, inter se merit will be decided as per marks secured in the LL.B. examination and in the event of equal marks secured by the candidate in the LL.B. examination, inter se merit will be decided as per the marks secured in HSC or equivalent examination.

In case there are vacant seats in any of the reserved categories, after the completion of admission rounds, such seats shall be converted and offered to appropriate categories as provided by inter changeability of Rules of Government of Maharashtra and applicable norms of the University of Mumbai.

Candidates are informed to submit only one application. If it is found that the candidate has applied multiple applications, his / her first application will be considered and other applications shall stand rejected.

Candidates are strictly informed that candidates can take admission in the LL.M. programme at one Institute /College / University at one time.

If found pursuing LL.M. with any other Institute / College / University apart from the Department of Law, LL.M. admission with the Department of Law, is liable for cancellation.

In case the candidate has given inaccurate information or the candidate is found to be ineligible, the Department of Law reserves the right to cancel the admission of the candidate forthwith.

Kindly note: After declaration of merit list, document verification and admission process is OFFLINE.

Candidate needs to be present in person for the process of LL.M. admission in the Department of Law, University of Mumbai.

For any further assistance/ query kindly contact on following number or Department of Law, University of Mumbai, Fort office in person or through authorised representative.

- 022 – 6832 0026– Department of

Law

Email:

lawmuoffice@gmail.com

NOTE:

Those candidates who want to apply only to colleges affiliated with University of Mumbai conducting the LL.M. programme and not with the Department of Law need not fill this form.

They are required to approach these colleges directly.

The list of colleges offering LL.M. Program is available on the mu.ac.in website.

Date- 08.09.2023

Sd/-

Head, Department of Law